

Fort Collins / Not In Our Town Alliance
SUPPORTING DIVERSE COMMUNITY

“Not In Our Town I” is the award winning documentary showing how the people of Billings, Montana say “No” to a mounting epidemic of hate activity and intolerance in their community. “Not In Our Town II” tells the stories of people around the country who have translated the Billings model and responded to threats of violence and intolerance in their communities. Individuals and Organizations are encouraged to use these videos as a resource to help initiate dialogue about addressing hate violence and intolerance in their communities.
